I'm Taro, a Saidaiji high school student. I have a friend who lives in Germany. Her name is Maria and she told me about the zoo in her town. She likes to take pictures with animals there.

When I talked with her on the phone yesterday, she said, "I want to go to Japan next year. Please tell me what I should be careful of in Japan." I couldn't answer her question because I didn't know how Germany and Japan are different. Then I asked my teacher about it. He said that cars keep to the right in Germany, but cars keep to the left in Japan.
