【第1部】音読問題

I am Satoshi, a high school student. This is my diary about yesterday.

The weather was nice today. I climbed a mountain in my town with my father because he told me to climb the mountain together. While I was climbing, I got really hot. After two hours, we finally reached the top. At first, I didn't want to go because climbing is very hard and I wasn't interested. But the air in the mountain was clean and our town which I saw from the top was beautiful. We ate the lunch which my mother made and it was very good. My father knows a lot about climbing. I want to climb mountains with him again.
